Orphaned and alone, Nanami Momozono finds herself burdened with a colossal debt she cannot repay. Desperate for shelter, she stumbles upon a dilapidated shrine and offers to clean it in exchange for a place to stay. To her astonishment, the shrine's resident deity, Mikage, grants her wish and bestows upon her the title of the Earth's new Deity.

However, Nanami is far from qualified for such a divine role. She lacks the necessary experience and knowledge, and her flamboyant personality often clashes with the stoic traditions of the supernatural realm. Together with her loyal familiar, Tomoe, a handsome fox yokai, Nanami embarks on an extraordinary adventure to master her newfound powers and embrace her destiny as the Earth's protector.
