Rumi was a 13th-century Persian poet and Sufi mystic whose teachings have resonated with seekers of truth for centuries. His poetry is known for its universal appeal, transcending cultural and religious boundaries.

In The Pocket Rumi, readers will find a collection of Rumi's most beloved poems, including:

- On Love: "Love is the bridge between you and all."
- On Life: "Life is a mirror and what you see in it is a reflection of your own thoughts and deeds."
- On the Divine: "The universe is not outside of you. Look inside yourself; everything that you want, you already have."

Rumi's teachings offer a path to self-realization and connection with the divine. Through his poetry, he encourages readers to embrace love, live in the present moment, and seek the truth within themselves.

The Pocket Rumi is part of the Shambhala Pocket Classics series, a collection of beloved spiritual and literary works in a convenient pocket-sized format. These books are designed to be easily carried and enjoyed on the go, making them the perfect companions for daily inspiration and reflection.

With its beautiful design and insightful commentary, The Pocket Rumi is a valuable addition to the Pocket Classics series. It is a timeless treasure that will continue to inspire and uplift readers for generations to come.

The Pocket Rumi is a must-have for anyone interested in spirituality, poetry, or the timeless wisdom of Rumi. This pocketful of wisdom is a perfect gift for yourself or a loved one, offering a daily dose of inspiration and guidance on the journey of life.
