The Selection (2012)

Plot Summary

The Selection introduces America Singer, a strong-willed and independent young woman from the Five caste. Although she has little interest in the Selection, America is chosen and finds herself whisked away to the opulent palace, where she must compete against thirty-four other girls for Maxon's affection.

As America navigates the treacherous waters of the competition, she forms alliances and enmities, and finds herself torn between her loyalty to her caste and her growing feelings for Maxon. Amidst the glamour and intrigue of the palace, the Selection proves to be a battleground where the stakes are high and the lines between love and deception blur.
